

'DA RATMAN!

Uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh
Uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh

The rat man has one eye has red rays
he stares as a snake in the darkness
Can find sneaky mice in the night yeah
Hypnotized by the wink of his bare eye

CHORUS

I can see the light in your eyes
but I see your bad side
Treat me well..., ahhh

Uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh

The rat man has nothing left to loose
Well..., he escaped from the claws of his owner
He crawled miles of dirt to free himself
The bad guys cannot find his trail

CHORUS

I can see the light in your eyes
but I see your bad side
memories, blurry past Slave of your lies
But I see the light in your eyes
Come to me now
Hear the sound of my heart

Beware the rat man
I know him pretty well
Your mask won't serve you well

Beware the rat man
He knows where you can hide
The streets are endless

Beware the rat man
He can read your mind
if you face the rat man

Beware the rat man
You better fear his traps
No yell will save you yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah..

Uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh

The rat man knows your weak side, has a power
He's able to transform you into what he wants
You need to trust me, need to trust in what I am saying Just watch your back and look behind beware of yourself
